SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

To honor the contributions in the area of leadership of one of our pioneering and respected colleagues, the Jeff Scobee Leadership Development Fund was established. This fund allows the KRCS to mentor future leaders. The Jeff Scobee Leadership Advancement Award is given annually to a respiratory therapist who desires to attend the AARC Capitol Hill Advocacy Day and become an active member of the Political Advocacy Contact Team (PACT) on the state and national levels. The award recipient will agree to a 2 year commitment to participate in the AARC/KRCS legislative and advocacy activities.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: To be considered, the applicant must:

- Be a member of the AARC/KRCS
- An active contributor to at least one of the Kansas Respiratory Care Society core strategies.
- Submit the completed application form and all attached documents in one packet postmarked on or before November 15.
